Hawaiian Reciprocity

The report of Commission of Experts sent to investigate the importation of Hawaiian sugar into the United States, Secretary Folger says, is an important one, not only to the flue and Eastern importers, but to the public generally, as it will in a very great measure determine the continuance of the reciprocity treaty which Secretary Sherman has repeatedly declared ought never to have been made.

The Commission in investigating the charges of fraud in the sugar traffic, made by Congressman Belmont, have found that there is nothing remarkable in the increased quantity of sugar produced by Hawaiian plantations since the reciprocity treaty, and that the amount exported to San Francisco was unquestionably all grown there, and there is no evidence of a false valuation nor deception as to the saccharine grade of sugar. The Commission agree that as a commercial matter purely, this country is at a disadvantage. The value of sugar imported up to this time, under the treaty, has been about $30,000,000, while the value of exports of the products of this country to Hawaii have amounted to only about $17,000,000. The balance of trade is thus against the United States, and as the reciprocity arrangement treaty is a failure upon this point, the Commission gives the treaty a black eye. The political phases of the question are not discussed.

Sheridan as a Candidate for President

The Chicago Herald prints a large number of expressions of opinion from local politicians and business men on the subject of General P. H. Sheridan for the next President of the United States. The opinions are nearly as diverse as the persons interviewed. Some say they will vote for him, some say it is too early to express an opinion, some say that while they admire him immensely as a General they are opposed on principle to military Presidents, and a large number ask, "What ticket are you going to run him on, Republican or Democrat?"

A Prudent Woman.

The New York World editorially says there appears to be little doubt that Mary Anderson has administered a quiet but effectual snub to the Prince of Wales. That princely match signified his willingness to have the actress presented; but Mary was equal to the occasion, and with consummate diplomacy, disavowed any disrespect for the future ruler of England, and at the same time intimated that, as she desired to keep her name free from the breath of scandal, she must decline the honor.

The New York Herald states that the ratio of suicide in the great cities for every million inhabitants averages yearly as follows: Naples, 34; Rome, 74; London, 87; Genoa, 135; New York, 144; Berlin, 170; Florence, 180; St. Petersburg, 206; Dresden, 240; Brussels, 272; Vienna, 287; Copenhagen, 302; Stockholm, 345; Paris, 302.

Denver has fifty artesian wells, the majority of them having been bored within a few weeks. The mania is spreading, every man of means is sinking one in his back-yard, and the daily greeting is, "Well how does it bore today?"

A buoy made to whistle by the action of the waves, the tone of which can be heard thirty miles, is a recent invention which the Government has been trying at the Staten Island lighthouse depot.

Gov. Stoneman, of California, has ousted the Republican Directors and put in Democratic ones, which gives the spoils of San Quentin and Folsom to the Dems.

Thurman, of Ohio, and Gordon, of Georgia, would make a winning ticket in 1894, hopefully suggests the Memphis Appeal.

The national debt was reduced $8,671,851 71 during the month of August.

In Reno are grapevines that are loaded with fruit of the best quality. Out in Duckwater and in other places fine grapes are grown. Indeed, it seems that the day has now arrived when the Nevada man may sit down under his own vine and fig tree, provided his imagination is sufficiently active to erect the latter. —Enterprise.

—General Gresham, Leggett, Arthur, Belknap, Hedrick, Tuttle and Sanders, all of whom had commands connected with Crocker's Iowa Brigade of the 47th corps, have accepted an invitation to attend its reunion at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, the 26th and 27th. The brigade lost 11,000 officers and men in the war.

Wonders Never Cease.

Glass was manufactured and served a useful purpose in this world ages before there was any recorded history of the dows or existence of mankind. In fact, glass is the oldest and most perfect relic of prehistoric man extant. The uses to which this article has been applied by man are legion, and the end is not yet. The latest comes from Germany where an artist has erected a glass-spinning establishment and is offering various articles of clothing, carpets, cuffs, collars, veils, etc., made of glass. He not only spins, but also weaves glass before the eyes of the people. The otherwise brittle glass he changes into pliable threads, and uses them for making good, warm clothing, by introducing certain ingredients, which are his secrets, and thereby changing the entire nature of the glass. He makes white curly glass muffs; also ladies' hats of glass, with glass feathers which are lighter than real feathers. Wool made of glass, it is said, can not be distinguished from the genuine article. Glass is a non-conductor, and the time may not be distant when it will cause a revolution in dress materials.

The New York Republicans.

The Republican prospects for a united party in New York are improving. The opposition to the plan of conciliation, which was manifested by the uncompromising stalwarts and half-breeds when it was at first promulgated, seems to be gradually yielding to a more complacent feeling, which is noticeably manifested in the absence of the mutual contention of the factions at the primaries to be held in Brooklyn.

Indian War Claims

(Carson Appeal.)

In 1860 there was an Indian war in Nevada to which many of the citizens of this State contributed money, time and labor. This was over twenty years ago and yet notwithstanding continual promises on the part of the Government to pay these claims, there has been no settlement. There are many poor men now residing in the State, and some of them are living in Carson, to whom the money justly due would be a God send, but they are not only unable to secure a dollar but are unable to ascertain how to go about the task of recovering the money. The press should agitate this subject until some tangible result follows.

THE "BLUE BOOK."

The Official Register of the United States Government's Employees—New Statesmen are Paid—A Curious Study.

The Government "Blue Book," which is always issued just before a new session of Congress comes in, is now being prepared, and will be given to the public in a short time. It contains in each issue the names of all Government employees, with the date of their employment, the State of their birth, the State from which each was appointed, the salary each one gets, the name of the position he holds, and the location where he is employed. The "Blue Book" grows larger every year or rather every two years, for it is published at that period. That of four years ago contained about 1,000 pages in two volumes, that of two years ago had at least 1,200 and the one for 1893 will contain, it is expected, 1,600 pages.

The book is a curious study. There is, as has been thousands of times told, a constant rush for Government position. People will go to almost any length for Government position. They come to Washington, and spend weeks and months, and even years here. They haunt public men and public places. They are willing to undergo any humiliation or suffer any agony of expense and suspense to get a place. Failing in this, they are willing to pay money for a place. Often advertisements appear in the daily papers offering $100, $200, $400 and even $500 to anyone who will procure them a Government appointment.

Others offer a considerable sum of money in hand and a large percentage of their salary so long as they hold the place. From this one would suppose that Government positions were perfect bonanzas, so to speak, and that salaries attached to them were princely in their proportions. A gentleman holding an important position in the Treasury was not long since asking of our correspondent what a newspaper correspondent might make in Washington, and being informed in general terms, responded, with an air of surprise, "Why, that's better than a Government position, isn't it?" That is the key to the general view of a "Government position," as ascertained by three-fourths of the people in Washington, and by a large proportion of the people outside of the city and the Government service.

In view of this general belief that the Government employee is a prince, the "Blue Book" is extremely interesting. The President, as everybody knows, gets $50,000 a year. Some people say that the Presidents don't save anything out of their salaries. That is probably not true. There is no reason why they should not. They have not only their house rent furnished free, but the expenses of the White House are paid out of the public purse. An appropriation for this especial purpose is made at every session of Congress. The President certainly ought to save money out of his salary, and probably does. Possibly a few of the foreign representatives of this Government save something out of their salaries, but probably not. Their expenses abroad are very heavy, and much is expected of them, both socially and personally.

The Ministers of London, Paris, Berlin, and St. Petersburg get $17,500 each; those at Vienna, Peking, Rio de Janeiro, Yeddo, Rome, Mexico and Madrid get $12,000 a year each; those at Guatemala, Santiago and Lima, $10,000 each; those to Venezuela, Turkey, Sweden and Norway, the Netherlands, Hayti, the United States of Columbia, Belgium and the Argentine Republic, $7,500 each; the Consuls General to Rio de Janeiro, Paris, London and Havana, $6,000 each; the Cabinet officers get $8,000 a year each, and don't save a cent of it. They are really the most poorly paid men, considering what is expected of them, in the Government service. They are expected to entertain early and often and on a grand scale, and instead of having everything furnished them as it is for the President, they must furnish it all themselves. The result is that none of them can save anything out of the $8,000 a year which they are allowed.

The Collector of Customs at New York gets $12,000 a year, and should be able to save something from it. The Collector at Boston gets $8,000 a year, so does that at Philadelphia and those at New Orleans, San Francisco and Baltimore get $7,000. The Commissioner of Internal Revenue gets $6,000, the General of the Army and Admiral of the Navy gets $13,500 each; the Lieutenant-General of the Army, $11,000; the Vice Admiral in the Navy, $9,000; the Rear Admiral, $8,000; Major-Generals, $7,500 each, and Brigadier-Generals, $5,000.

The Vice-President of the United States gets $8,000 a year. The Senators and Representatives and stenographers in Congress get $5,000 apiece, and so do the Comptroller of the Currency, the First and Second Comptrollers of the Treasury and the Commanders in the Navy. A few Consul Generals—not over three or four—get $5,000 each, as do the interpreters at Peking and one or two other points. The Postmaster of New York gets $8,000 a year, and that one ends the list of persons in the employ of the Government who receive anything more than a living salary. With two thirds of these the amount they receive is not more than they are expected to spend, and not more than they do spend. A few of the heads of bureaus get $4,000 a year, and a few Postmasters receive about the same, but of the whole 100,000 officeholders not one in ten gets more than a bare living.

In the "Blue Book" there are columns upon columns of names with salaries ranging from $500 to $1,500 a year. Take, for instance, the office of Supervising Surgeon-General of the Marine Hospital Service, which is now intrusted with the task of protecting the whole country from yellow fever and cholera. Its efficient head gets a bare $4,000 a year, a small sum compared with the earnings of physicians in practice in large cities, while the remainder of the employees actually average less than $100 a month apiece. The average position for which the Congressman to the verge of distraction pays to begin with about $1,000 a year, and seldom reaches more than 50 per cent. more than that, while not a few who spend months in search of office are finally content to begin at $800 a year, and happy if they ever reach $100 per month. —Cincinnati Times-Star special.

Hessian Journalism

(Tuscarora Times-Review)

The Reveille says that any man who will sell his vote is a scoundrel. This is true, but he is not a bit more contemptible than the journalist, who for coin advocates the election of a wealthy rascal or nincompoop, or the tool of a corporation monopoly for office. While not including the editor of the Reveille in that category, we would suggest generally that a portion of the abuse which is heaped upon the poor and usually ignorant sell out voter, be distributed among the Hessian newspaper men, whose political conscience are invariably controlled by the sack. Of the two classes they are the meanest.

The Tuscarora Times-Review corrects the JOURNAL's statement that a State Senator would have to resign in order to accept a nomination for or be elected to Congress. The Times-Review is right and the JOURNAL was wrong.

MISCELLANEOUS.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SCILLIAN Hair Renewer.

Seldom does a popular remedy win such a strong hold upon the public confidence as has HALL'S HAIR RENEWER. The cases in which it has accomplished a complete restoration of color to the hair, and vigorous health to the scalp, are innumerable.

Old people like it for its wonderful power to restore to their whitening locks their original color and beauty. Middle-aged people like it because it prevents them from getting bald, keeps dandruff away, and makes the hair grow thick and strong. Young ladies like it as a dressing because it gives the hair a beautiful glossy lustre, and enables them to dress it in whatever form they wish. Thus it is the favorite of all, and it has become so simply because it disappoints no one.

IN AND OUT OF TOWN.

What is Being Said and Done in a Small Way.

Dave Harlan, of Paradise is in town.

Unless all signs fail we shall have a spell of weather within the next few days.

I. Frederick will open business in his new quarters on Virginia street Monday morning.

D. D. Bowen left yesterday to visit his farm on Walker river, to be gone a week or ten days.

Tourists have all left Tahoe, and the Tallac House will be closed in a few days for the winter.

Among the people of Susanville flux and diarrhea has disappeared and typhoid fever has taken its place.

Saddler, the man who had his foot amputated at the Lake House a few weeks ago, will be able to get out of bed next week.

Lawyer Cain is having a new porch constructed around the West and South side of his residence, corner of Virginia and Fourth streets.

Some paragraphists think it about time for the stale joke about the bald head and the fly to be stopped, and Tom Hymers thinks it about time for the fly to stop.

Ben Franklin, who attempted to commit suicide at the Ohio House a few weeks ago, is going to get well. He has recovered his mind and is now very anxious to live.

For Renosites desirous of witnessing the Inter-State shooting match at Carson on the 17th inst., the V. & T. R. R. will on that date issue round trip tickets at $2 each.

The Independent declares that Elko county is becoming distressingly dull and monotonous. No preaching at the County Seat, no District Court business, civil or criminal, and not a person in the county jail.

The California Rifle Team went through to Carson yesterday morning, armed and equipped for the contest with the Nevada Team next Monday. They will have to do some good shooting to get away with the trophy.

The Commissioners meet as a Board of Equalization next Monday.

The little son of D. Benaw, shot in the leg at Verdi last week, and taken to Carson for treatment, is still living. He suffers greatly and his life is still in jeopardy.

Hon. David Melarky, Assemblyman from Humboldt county, author of the famous Melarky bill before the Legislature last Winter, and who has been in California all summer in search of health, is now at St. Mary's Hospital, San Francisco, and is getting better. The doctors say dyspepsia is the cause of his illness.

About daylight yesterday morning an incipient fire was discovered in the yard back of the Swiss House on Virginia street, below the Ohio House, and was extinguished without much difficulty with buckets before it acquired much headway. The proprietor of the premises cannot account for the fire on any other hypothesis than that a tramp had slept there during the night and had dropped a match or after lighting his pipe before leaving.

Express Letters.

Wells, Fargo & Co. state that as the letter express of the company is conducted in the interests of the public, they are pleased to give the people the benefit of the reduction made by Congress in postage, and consequently will sell their franks at four cents apiece.

THE INTER-STATE MATCH.

The Coming Contest Between the Californians and Nevada Teams.

The California team, to contest against the Nevada team for the inter-State trophy, came up from San Francisco yesterday morning, and continued on to Carson, where the members shot one score during the afternoon. They will shoot two today and two to-morrow, so as to get their hand in for the match on Monday. The California team is composed of Messrs. Kuhnle, Klein, Kuhnle, Kellogg, Cummings, Kelly, Perkins, Burns, Barrero, Williams, Fredericks, Sime and Warren. The shooting team will be the ten men selected from the list who do the best at the practicing ground. Major A. F. Klose, inspector of rifle practice of the Second brigade, is captain of the team, and Sergeant Charles Nash, of the police, will be the coach during the preliminary practice and the match. The Californians expect to return on Thursday or Friday next.

The match is confined to members of the National Guard of the Pacific coast States and Territories, but has only been between California and Nevada so far. Any military gun can be used, and ten shots at the 200 and the 500-yard targets are allowed each marksman. This admits of a possible 100 points for each man, or 1,000 for the team, and it is confidently expected that the winners will beat the best score ever made.

The trophy, which is the aim of both teams to win, is a bronze mail-clad knight of the middle ages on horseback, and in itself is an elegant work of art. It was put up by the California Rifle Association in 1881, under the title of the "Pacific Slope Trophy." The conditions by which it may be finally kept are, that it must be won three times by teams of one State or territory. In 1881 it was won by the California team, Nevada only contesting, by a score of 845 against 800 for the Washoe marksmen. In 1882 the Nevada team captured the prize, making 866 points out of a possible 1,000, the Californians scoring only 817. The score of the Nevadans was a "world-beater" it being the highest ever made in a match with military rifles. By the original terms the trophy is to be held by the adjutant general of the State or Territory winning it until finally won. Consequently it has been in the State of Nevada for the past year. The match this season excites more interest among riflemen than either of those preceding, because better shooting is expected than ever before. The range at Carson is an excellent one, is in the best of order, and should Monday be a favorable day these expectations will probably be realized, as the Californians can beat the last winning figures of the Nevada militiamen, who, on their part, have shown they can shoot better than they did last year.

The Nevada team has been selected from the best shots in the National Guard after a strong competition. Their names are Messrs. Cowing, Galusha, Burke, Saffell, Thaxter, Hark, Crawford, Cameron, Fraser, O'Brien, Lord, Cheney, Alley and Borges. From these fourteen the ten will be selected.

The California team come over the mountains with a full knowledge that they have the toughest contest on their hands they ever engaged in; but as they have beaten the Nevada sharpshooters three times, and have only been conquered once, they feel it will be all the more honor to beat such a splendid team as they will meet at Carson. The Carson people are preparing to give their visitors a welcome they will remember. A dinner and ball are among the festivities on the programme. The JOURNAL's hopes and best wishes are with and for the Nevada team.

Row in Chinatown.

Late night before last a row occurred between the Celestials in Chinatown in which one of the parties was shot and seriously wounded. It appears that both men have been employed on Wheeler's ranch, one as a cook and the other as a harvest hand. Wheeler discharged the cook a few days ago and put the other fellow in the kitchen. They met in Chinatown a night before last when the cook accused the other of having been instrumental in procuring his dismissal by way of revenge. One took effect in the side and glanced around several inches and out without entering the cavity, and the other in the arm. Both are flesh wounds and not considered dangerous. The shooter was succeeded in making his escape and has thus far avoided arrest.

A Farmer Boy's Pets.

Fred Frey, the 11-year old son of Commissioner Joe Frey, is disconsolate; his greatly prized pet mice were ruthlessly murdered night before last. When the history of these little pets is known, the boy's grief will not be wondered at. When the harvest commenced Fred was detailed to drive a McCormick reaper. In the tool box was found an old mother mouse with five young ones. The tools were carefully removed by Fred and the old mouse and her babies given entire possession of the box. They remained in the box during the entire harvest, regularly fed by Fred. At the close of the harvest the mother mouse was as tame as a kitten, taking food and water out of Fred's hands without show of fear. Someone visited the little family Sunday evening and left without taking the precaution to close the box, and in the night some villainous animal, supposed to be a weasel, stole into the box and murdered the whole family. Fred gave the little pets a decent burial and erected a suitable monument to mark their last resting place.

Paradise Bullion.

The Paradise mine continues to make regular shipments of bullion. Yesterday morning Wells Fargo & Co.'s car contained a silver brick from this mine weighing 133 pounds, of the value of $2,580. David Harlan, who arrived in Reno yesterday from Paradise says that all the mines are looking well, and that the outlook for the camp never was more encouraging. There is not that rustle and excitement now that there was in the days of stock gambling, but there is much more effective work being done. Mr. Harlan is enthusiastic in the belief that Paradise will yet be a big bullion producing camp.

Patents Issued.

During the month of August patents were issued for mining claims in the State of Nevada as follows:

Luther Clark, Central Consolidated lode.

J. A. Miller, Perkins lode.

Falcon M. Co., Gazelle lode; Henry Clay lode.

Thos. Werry, et al., Central Hill lode.

Auburn Con. G. M. Co., Paine lode; Silver State lode.

Ferd S. Van Zandt, Alameda No. 2 lode.

A Righteous Protest.

The people of Boise City are righteously indignant because in naming a station on the Oregon Short Line Railroad, near that city, a word was selected from the Indian dialect which has a low and obscene signification. They indignantly protest against the word being any longer used to designate the point named, or any other point, where the word must be forced upon the lips and into the ears of the wives and children of decent people.

Homestead.

An inmate of the County Hospital for many years, known as "Old Dad," is dying by inches of homesickness. He has two sons and a married daughter in Illinois. He weeps and begs like a child for permission to go to them. As the Commissioners have no authority to appropriate money for that purpose, it would be an act of Christian charity to raise the money by subscription and let the poor man go.

Wood River Wages.

The going wages on Wood River, says the Times, may be stated as follows: the rates generally adopted: Miners, per day, $4; top hands on mines, $3.50; ranchers, $50 per month and board; wood-choppers, $1.50 to $2 per cord; common laborers, $3 per day; foreman on mines, $5 per day; foreman in mills and smelters, $4 to $6 per day; mill managers, $5 to $10 per day; furnace men $2 per day; laborers in smelters, $2.50 to $3 per day.

A New Idea.

A farmer at Wood River, Idaho, is doing a profitable business raising chickens by feeding them on radish seed. He finds this a cheaper and better food for chickens than any kind of grain.

An Incendiary Fizzle.

An unsuccessful incendiary attempt was made in Grantsville last Monday. S. Rosenthal, a merchant, and William Hemings are under arrest. It is supposed that it was for the purpose of getting insurance money.

Every parent feels a sense of pride in seeing their boys decently and becomingly dressed, to say nothing of the self-satisfied air it gives any man to be thus arrayed; therefore, act wisely, and before you purchase a suit for yourself or boys call and examine the inducements which Abraham Brothers, at the White House, offer for your patronage.

Tom Barnett is in Plumas county looking after some mining interests.

Boycotting a Railroad.

The Boise Democrat says the merchants of that place, failing to get satisfactory answer to repeated requests of the Union Pacific railroad company whether they would give them a shipping station at Kuna, opposite that place, are sending large orders to San Francisco and consigning the same to Kelton, where there is now unlimited cheap wagon transportation. The natural trading point for Boise City is San Francisco, and it would seem now that there is where our merchants will go.

Fair Races.

A. K. Lamb has decided to compensate in a measure the failure of the State Fair this fall, by giving a week's races at the Fair grounds, commencing on the 22d of October. He is now actively engaged in making the necessary arrangements.

Young and middle aged men suffering from nervous debility, premature old age, loss of memory, and kindred symptoms, should send three stamps for Part VII of pamphlets issued by World's Medical Dispensary Association Buffalo, N. Y.
